

European Women on Boards (EWOB) is reaching out to female business leaders and board members in Sweden establishing a partnership with the board network Styrelsekraft – Women on Boards.

PRESS RELEASE

Stockholm 2022-06-14

EWOB and Styrelsekraft – Women on Boards today announce their partnership agreement, expanding the collaboration to include network members from Styrelsekraft – Women on Boards to join forces with European Women on Boards. With this partnership agreement, Styrelsekraft will expand the opportunities to its members by offering them a privileged access to a wide European network supporting senior female leaders' career development and advocating for greater gender diversity at decision-making level.

Styrelsekraft – Women on Boards, is a nationwide board network for qualified female management and board competence. The purpose is to actively contribute to increasing the share of women on Swedish company boards and thereby contribute to increased profitability and more sustainable business.

Through its tailored programs and membership area, EWOB supports women across Europe who are looking for their next Board or C-Suite position. At the same time, the organisation's research and advocacy work engages European leaders to bring greater gender diversity to the leadership of companies in Europe.

“We are glad to be a partner of EWOB extending our service to our network in leadership development, business networking and increase visibility of board competence. This is an opportunity for our female leaders to strengthen leadership capabilities and network of senior women throughout Europe.”

– Cecilia Seddigh, Chair Styrelsekraft – Women on Boards

European Women on Boards is proud to join forces with other like-minded organisations from many countries around Europe including Future Boards, The Nine, Rolemodel Rebels and today Styrelsekraft – Women on Boards.

“I am delighted to welcome Styrelsekraft – Women on Boards as partner. It is a great organization that has played a major role in increasing the number of women in Corporate Boards in Sweden. With this partnership, we can be even more impactful, and this at European level”

– Hedwige Nuyens – Chair European Women on Boards
